Conditional Acceptance Agreement
For International Students Between Rutgers University-Camden and
 Camden County College
2013

Rutgers University-Camden ("Rutgers-Camden," an institution of higher learning with the address of 303 Cooper Street, Camden, New Jersey 08102 and Camden County College ("CCC," an institution of higher learning with the address of College Drive, Blackwood, New Jersey 08012 hereby agree to form a linkage to promote their mutual goals of admission and preparation of international students into their respective academic programs. This Conditional Acceptance Agreement ("Agreement,") sets forth the parties agreement to create a bridge program from CCC into Rutgers-Camden.

The program is designed to allow international students to seamlessly transfer from CCC to Rutgers-Camden through Conditional Admission set forth on the day of admission to Camden County College. Admission to Rutgers-Camden (College of Arts & Sciences or Rutgers School of Business-Camden) is based upon successful completion of an A.A. or A.S. degree from Camden County College with a minimum 3.0 GPA. This agreement applies to Rutgers-Camden programs with the exception of Social Work, Teacher Preparation, Biomedical Technology, Liberal Studies and Nursing.

This agreement is subject to review and revision as necessary.

Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to offer international students a guaranteed admission into Rutgers-Camden (College of Arts & Sciences for Rutgers School of Business-Camden) upon completion of their degree at Camden County College.

Criteria for Conditional Admission

Both institutions agree to the following criteria for conditional admission of international students:

1. CCC students who are interested in being conditionally admitted to Rutgers-Camden must submit a Rutgers-Camden conditional admission application along with any other required documentation.
2. Conditional admission to academic programs at Rutgers-Camden will be determined solely by the appropriate officials at Rutgers-Camden.
3. Rutgers-Camden will provide a letter of conditional acceptance to qualified applicants.
4. Camden County College will issue the I-20 form, which will include remarks indicating that the student has been conditionally accepted to Rutgers-Camden, as well as a letter of regular admission to Camden County College.
5. A CCC student who has been conditionally admitted to Rutgers-Camden and successfully completes an A.A. or A.S. degree at CCC with a 3.0 cumulative GPA will be accepted to Rutgers-Camden (College of Arts and Sciences or School of Business-Camden.)
Admission Procedures

1. Conditionally admitted CCC students will be required to complete the Rutgers undergraduate application process for transfer students.
2. The online application for priority admission to Rutgers-Camden is due by December 1 for Fall Admission and October 1 for Spring Admission. Required credentials are due after the aforementioned dates.
3. Students may apply after the due dates have passed on a space available basis.
4. The CCC student must be in compliance with all USCIS rules and regulations at the time of matriculation to Rutgers-Camden.

Transfer

In accordance with the New Jersey Statewide Transfer Agreement, an A.A. or A.S. degree from CCC will be fully transferable as the first 60 credits of a baccalaureate degree program at Rutgers-Camden. Students transferring with an A.A. degree into a B.A. program or an A.S. degree into a B.S. program will have 60 transfer credits accepted. Students must complete the state-mandated general education requirements at CCC to be eligible for the NJSTA benefits. All credits are evaluated by Office of New Student Programs at Rutgers-Camden.

CCC students are strongly advised to consult with a CCC transfer counselor and to adhere to the Recommended Transfer Programs (RTP) available using NJTransfer. Students must also be mindful of Rutgers-Camden programs requiring prerequisites in order to guarantee timely completion of their program.

Marketing Efforts

1. Rutgers-Camden and CCC are committed to collaboration in the area of international student recruitment and will develop a joint international student marketing plan.
2. CCC will allow Rutgers-Camden admissions representatives to visit the CCC campus at least once each semester. Visits will be announced in advance so that conditionally admitted CCC students and other prospective Rutgers-Camden students can plan to attend. CCC will also publicize information sessions held at Rutgers-Camden to its students.
3. CCC will supply Rutgers-Camden with an enrollment report of students conditionally admitted to Rutgers-Camden each semester for outreach and communication purposes.
4. Rutgers-Camden will supply CCC with promotional materials for marketing purposes.
5. The parties to this Agreement agree and acknowledge that the names "Rutgers University-Camden," "Rutgers-Camden" and related logos are the property of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey and "Camden County College" and "CCC" and its logo are the property of Camden County College.

Miscellaneous

This Agreement does not create the relationship of principal and agent or any similar relationship between the parties hereto and neither party shall possess, and neither party shall hold itself out to third persons as possessing, any power, or authority to bind the other in any way whatsoever.
Either party may terminate this Agreement by giving three (3) months notice to the other party provided, however, that the termination of this agreement shall not affect any student then enrolled in ELP with respect to their eligibility to attend Rutgers University, Camden.

Neither party hereto shall be entitled to compensation from the other party for any activities performed under this Agreement.

Each party shall comply, at its own cost, with the provisions of all federal, state and local laws, ordinances, regulations and orders pertaining to the subject matter hereof. Each acknowledges that it is an educational institution subject to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA,") 20 U.S.C. Section 1232(g), et seq., and in the performance of duties hereunder, it will have access to student information. Each party shall use reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with FERPA by itself and by its contractors and sub-contractors.

Program Evaluation

Both parties (Rutgers-Camden and Camden County College) will meet at the start of each semester to evaluate the program and maintain a flow of communications for students.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned parties have caused this agreement to be executed by their authorized representatives.
